THANK YOU

Dear Friends

The work of CfR continues. Barnes Close is for sale but we continue, for the time being, to run our programme of events there and our international work continues.

We are extremely grateful for your support, financial, practical and prayerful because without it our work would cease. Your giving enables us to continue our work in the UK, subsidise young people attending CfR related activities and projects as well as funding our international work. Each year we draw on reserves to supplement donations thus enabling us to maintain our level of work.

The Membership Fee of £30 per year goes towards running and supporting the CfR network community including the production of Newlink and the Annual Review, which are also available to Friends, free by email or £10pa by post.

In addition we need and welcome gifts for:

- CfR Programme running our own events and promoting peace and reconciliation work
- Bursary Fund to enable young people to attend CfR related activities in the UK and abroad
- CfR Romania to support projects in Romania
- CfR Footprints to support the 'Touch of Hope' project based in Croatia, Serbia and Bosnia.
- CfR East Africa to support work in East Africa, particularly Burundi, Kenya and Rwanda

Your support is greatly appreciated, much valued and vital to the on-going work of CfR and we would love to welcome you to Barnes Close this year. Equally we would be pleased to provide a speaker for your church, group or organisation, just contact me.

Thanking you in anticipation,
Ian Ring, Community Co-Ordinator.
